Ms. Chambers brought before the Board the case of Michael Ellis, a Circuit Court Case before Judge Kirkpatrick in Raleigh County. The Petitioner appeals the Board’s June 23, 2010 Final Order denying his request for a partial duty-related disability retirement from Trooper Plan A. The Petitioner, represented by Richard Monahan, Esquire, alleges that the Board wrongly denied his application for disability retirement on the basis of hearing loss, having concluded that hearing aids would permit him to remain employed. The Petitioner further alleges that the State Police cannot permit or require a trooper to wear hearing aids in order to remain employed or satisfy physical ability standards. A decision was received from the Raleigh Circuit Court reversing the Board’s denial of partial duty disability benefit under State Police Plan A.
